INTRODUCTION:

1. The Church: a definition

- a. The word “church” means “the called out, an assembled people.”

Note: For a complete study of the word “church,” and the meaning and usage of the word the Holy Spirit chose in the Greek language, which is translated as “church” in our English Bibles, see pages 83-85 in A SURVEY OF CHURCH HISTORY by Don Shackelford.

- b. The church of Christ is identified as the body of Christ. (Romans 16:16; Ephesians 1:22-23).
 - c. The church is also identified in scripture as the kingdom of Christ, the household or family of God, the bride of Christ, and other terms that demonstrate the Christians relationship to God and His Son. (Colossians 1:13)
 - d. Those who are added to the church are referred to as the saved, Christians, disciples, brothers and sisters, fellow citizens, fellow servants, fellow soldiers, fellow workers and other terms. (Acts 2:47; 11:26; Ephesians 2:19; Colossians 1:17)
- ### 2. The church and God’s plan to save man from sin existed before time began (Titus 1:1-3; 2 Timothy 1:9)
- a. It existed in the mind of God as a plan.
 - b. It was revealed by God through promises, prophecies, preparation, and perfection.

THE CHURCH THROUGH THE AGES

Introduction:

1. When Jesus made the promise, "I will build my church," it was not an afterthought, but rather it was in God's plan in the very beginning.
2. The church was a part of God's eternal plan to save men from sin.
 - a. God's plan was hidden from the ages and from the generations, Colossians 1:24-28.
 - (1) It was a mystery though the ages but has now been revealed to His saints.
 - (2) The Gentiles can be saved by the same plan as the Jews.
 - (3) Christ now lives his people that they may be presented perfect in Christ Jesus.
 - b. God's plan was hidden in God who created all things through Jesus Christ, Ephesians 3:7-11.
 - (1) God's plan of saving Jews and Gentiles was a mystery but was made known when He gave His Son and built the church.
 - (2) The church was built according to an eternal purpose.
 - c. God's plan was a mystery but was revealed when He gave His Son and built his church, Ephesians 5:32.
 - d. God's plan to save the world from sin by the blood of Christ existed before the foundation of the world, 1 Peter 1:18-20.
 - (1) We are redeemed with the precious blood of Jesus Christ.
 - (2) This plan was hidden and a mystery, but it was foreknown and foreordained by God before the world.
2. When did the church exist?

I. The Church Existed As God's PLAN.

- A. It was hidden in the ages, Colossians 1:24-28; Ephesians 5:22-32.
- B. It had eternal purpose before the world and all generations, Colossians 1:24-28; Ephesians 5:22-32.
- C. The blood of Christ and the church cannot be separated; for, he purchased the church with his blood. Acts 20:28.

- D. The church was not an afterthought or substitute for the kingdom of God, Mark 9:1; Matthew 16:16-18.
- E. The church that Jesus built was not from the minds of men, but from the mind of God.
- F. The church was in God's plan from the beginning all along.
- G. The church as God's plan, demonstrates the manifold wisdom of God, 1 Cor. 2:6-10.
 - a. It is described as a mystery that was hidden and that was foreordained before the world.
 - b. God 's plan was for those who love him.

II. The Church Existed In PROMISE.

- A. The promise was made to Eve, Genesis 3:15.
 - 1. Christ dealt a mighty blow to Satan's head when He resurrected from the dead.
 - 2. The promise was accomplished through woman's seed, Isaiah 7:14; Luke 1:31-34.
- B. It was promised to Abraham.
 - 1. There was the seed promise, Genesis 12:1-3, 7.
 - 2. There was the land promise, Genesis 12:7; 13:14-17; 15:5-7.
 - 3. There was the extended land promise, Genesis 15:18.
 - 4. All of these promises were fulfilled;
 - a. The seed promise was fulfilled, Galatians 3:16, 29.
 - b. The land promise was fulfilled, Joshua 21:43-45.
 - c. The extended land promise was fulfilled, 2 Chron. 9:26.
 - d. The land promises were conditional (1 Kings 9:4-7; 2 Kings 21:7-9; 2 Chron. 33:8); therefore, when the Israelites disobeyed they forfeited their right to the land, Mal. 1:6-14; 3:7.
 - e. Remember what Jesus said, "My kingdom is not of this world," John 18:36.

III. The Church Existed In PROPHECY.

- A. God revealed to Daniel that a new kingdom would be established in the days of the fourth kingdom from Daniel; Babylon, Medo-Persian, Greek, Roman, Daniel 2:44.
- B. Isaiah prophesied of the same kingdom, Isaiah 2:2-3.
- C. Zechariah prophesied about the branch of David who would become king and priest; Zech. 6:9-13.

IV. The Church Existed In PREPARATION.

- A. Jesus spoke of the kingdom in parables and told his disciples that it was at hand, Mark 1:4, 14.
- B. Jesus gave the time of its coming, Mark 9:1; Acts 1:8; Acts 2:1.
- C. Jesus gave the promise of its coming, Matthew 16:18.
- D. The church was established after the death of Jesus.
 - 1. If it was established before his death, it had no head; for, he was not given rule or made head until after his ascension, Acts 2:32-39; Eph. 1:18-21.
 - 2. If it was established before his death, it had no foundation under it; for, the middle wall of partition had to be torn down between Jew and Gentile first; 1 Cor. 3:10-11; Eph. 2:13-22.
 - 3. If it was established before his death, it had no blood in it; and if it had no blood in it, it had no blood with which to seal the covenant which governs it, John 19:33-34; Heb. 10:19-23.
 - 4. Conclusion: The church was built after the death, burial, and resurrection of Christ, which is the good news, 1 Cor. 15:1-10.

V. The Church Exists In PERFECTION.

- A. On the day of Pentecost Peter states that what the people were seeing is that which was prophesied by Joel, Acts 2:16.
- B. The law went out, Hebrews 8:6-13.
- C. The new and final tabernacle and temple has been built, Acts 15:13-17.
- D. The term kingdom was used in present tense after Pentecost, Col. 1:13; Eph. 1:22-23.

E. The kingdom will be given to the Father by the Son at his second coming, 1 Cor. 15:24.

CONCLUSION:

1. All those who are saved, are saved by God's plan.
2. Christ and the church are God's plan for our salvation.

BOOK OF ACTS

Introduction:

DATE: The book of Acts was probably written about A.D. 63

AUTHOR and RECIPIENT: Internal evidence in the book implies that Luke wrote the gospel of Luke and the book of Acts.

1. Both are addressed to the same person and with similar words.
2. Luke begins his gospel by addressing it to Theophilus.

¹ Inasmuch as many have taken in hand to set in order a narrative of those things which have been fulfilled among us, ² just as those who from the beginning were eyewitnesses and ministers of the word delivered them to us, ³ it seemed good to me also, having had perfect understanding of all things from the very first, to write to you an orderly account, most excellent Theophilus, ⁴ that you may know the certainty of those things in which you were instructed. Luke 1:1-4

3. The author of the book of Acts addressed it to Theophilus and refers to “the former account” he wrote, which was about Jesus.

¹ The former account I made, O Theophilus, of all that Jesus began both to do and teach, ² until the day in which He was taken up, after He through the Holy Spirit had given commandments to the apostles whom He had chosen, ³ to whom He also presented Himself alive after His suffering by many infallible proofs, being seen by them during forty days and speaking of the things pertaining to the kingdom of God. Acts 1:1-3

4. The author of the book of Acts refers to “them,” “they,” and “we,” and when “we” is used, Luke is included in the number, but when “them” or “they” is used, Luke’s name is absent (Acts 16:10-17; 20:5-21:18; 27:1-28:16).

THEME:

1. The theme of the book of Acts is the continuation of what Jesus did to continue to do and teach through the Holy Spirit sent from heaven (See John 14:26; 16:12-15).

 - 3) Considering the use of this word, it is obvious that the name “Christian” was given by God from above.
